

TIAM NEWS

Dissemination TIAM in 2010 Ergonomics conference in Žilina

24.th and 25.th November 2010

The international conference Ergonomics 2010 focused on advanced methods in ergonomics was held on the 24.th and 25.th November in Žilina, Slovak Republic. The conference was organized by the Slovak Ergonomic Association and this year carried a subtitle Progressive methods in Ergonomics.

Figure 1 and 2: Ergonomics 2010 opening Ceremony

The conference was aimed at addressing ergonomics for the use of advanced methods and the exchange and presentation of the latest knowledge and experience in the field of ergonomics. The conference was attended by experts from ergonomists, safety engineers, both from government organizations and private businesses.

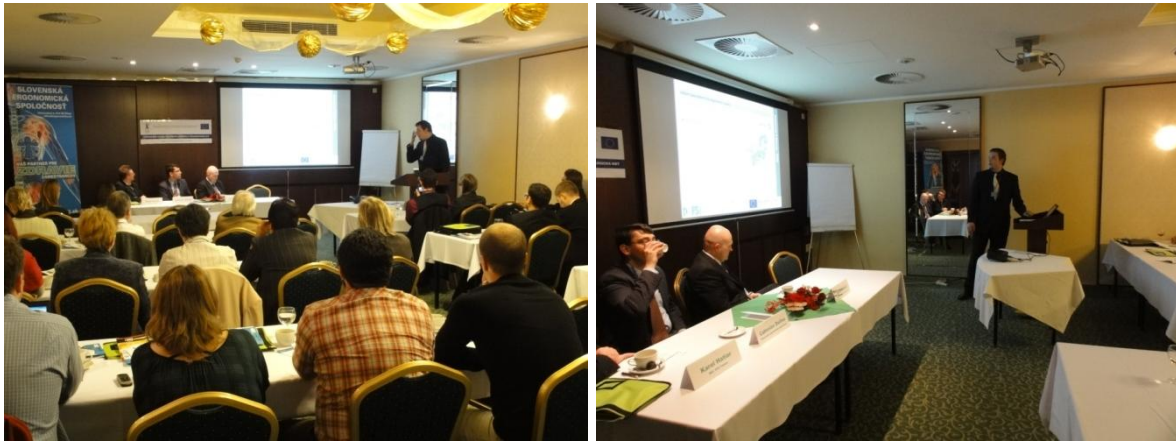

Figure 2 and 3 Ing. Tomas Görner by the TIAM project dissemination

Ing. Tomas Görner from UWB (University of West Bohemia) visited this conference in order to meet with other ergonomic experts, and to disseminate information about the TIAM project.

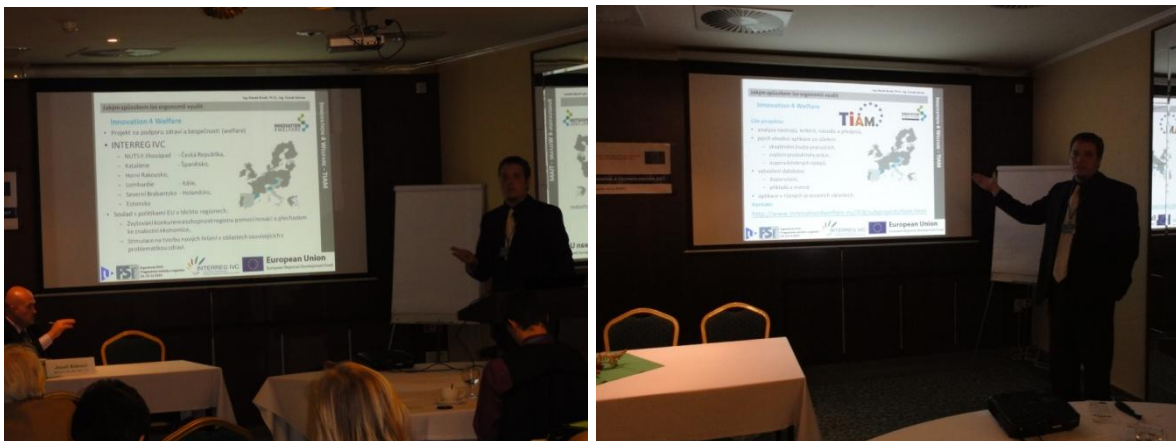

Figure 3 and 4 Ing. Tomas Görner by the TIAM project dissemination

Ing. Görner personally distributed the leaflets and disseminated information about the TIAM project. He also presented actual project results.

Great interest concerning the WMSDs issues, the main topic of TIAM project, has been registered among the conference participants.

